

What to do...

Knock, knock, who's there?

Luke.

Luke who?

Look round the door and you'll see.

Knock, knock, who's there?

This activity is designed to encourage reluctant writers to write! Help your child by looking for and discussing some good jokes. Then support them by providing lines for them to write on and a sharp pencil for them to write with. Help your child to spell any difficult words.

1. Do you know any good 'Knock, knock' jokes? Does your partner know any good ones?
2. Write your own 'knock, knock' joke and bring it into school.
3. Remember, you must write it as clearly as you can so that someone else can read it!
